Common order:

These two writ petitions are filed, the first by the petitioner in W.P.No.5692 of 1998 and the other by Sri K. Suresh Reddy (respondent No.7 of the first writ petition). Sri G.Vidyasagar, the learned counsel represents the petitioner in W.P.No.19745 of 1994 and Sri S.Sri Ram, the learned counsel for the petitioner in W.P.No.20333 of 1994 state that in view of the judgment pronounced this day in W.P.No.5692 of 1998 the appointment of the petitioner in W.P.No.19745 of 1994 to the post of Assistant Engineer (Civil) is placed beyond the jeopardy; and hence the relief sought in these writ petitions do not survive for adjudication, nor the grievance of the respective petitioners.

Recording the submission, these writ petitions are dismissed as infructuous after hearing the learned Standing counsel for TTD Sri A.K.Jayaprakash Rao as well. There is no representation on behalf of the State though the Govt. Pleader for Endowments is reflected in the cause list. No costs.
